4. STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing Documents

The name of the charity is Third Church of Christ, Scientist, London, England.

Third Church of Christ, Scientist, London, is a branch church of the First Church of Christ Scientist in Boston, Massachusetts, USA, [The Mother Church] founded by Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science. It is a lay church, firmly rooted in the teachings of Christ Jesus, and its mission is to spread its message of Christian love and spiritual healing for the benefit and enrichment of all mankind.

The Trustees have given consideration to the question of the church's charitable status, with special regard to the benefit to the community beyond its own membership. They have referred to the guidelines on the Charity Commission website and are satisfied that both its activities and its use of funds fully justify its charitable status.

Organisation

The organisation of the church is outlined in the Constitution and Rules. The Board oversees the church activities with the knowledge and approval of the members.

Election of Trustees/Other Officers

In common with all Christian Science churches and societies, this is a lay church, governed by the members. It has its own Constitution and Rules based on democratic principles.

The members elect from among their number, a Board of three Trustees, one of whom is President/Chairman, each serving for a maximum of three consecutive years, who receive no remuneration for their work on the Board.

While day-to-day management of the church's affairs is in their hands, proposed expenditure exceeding £3,000 at any one time is referred back to the members for ratification, except in cases of emergency.

Two lay Readers, elected to serve for a maximum of three consecutive years, conduct the Sunday Morning Service; one also conducts two Wednesday Meetings.

The organist, soloist and caretaker are not church members, and receive appropriate fees.

Board Induction and Training

Trustees (i.e. Board members) are elected annually by the members and may serve three consecutive years. A year must elapse before they may be re-elected.

The Board

At a members' meeting held on the 24th September 2017, the members dissolved the Board since the members were dissatisfied with the Board's performance. The functions of the Board were carried out by members at general meetings. The members have subsequently elected a new Board to serve the church in the normal manner
