STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Organisational structure

The Trustees who have served during the year and since the year end are set out on page 1.

The Chairman of the Committee of Management is a serving officer nominated by the Parachute Regiment; presently this is the Regimental Lieutenant Colonel.

Further members of the Committee of Management comprise of one representative of the following regions: Anglia, London, Midlands, North, North East, North West, South, South East, South West, Wales, and Yorkshire. These representatives are elected by branches of their own region and hold office for three years.

The Association structure comprises of:

a) The central Association charity (registered number 214015): In support of its charitable activities the central charity offers individual membership to eligible individuals and provides central and regional support for local branches.

b) 81 local branches which exist to further the purposes of the Association and are separately registered with their respective charity regulator. (PRA members may additionally become members of one or more local branches.) The elected members of the committee of management of the central Association charity also act as Regional Secretaries and provide regional support during the course of the year to branches in their respective region.
